

Collecting, Showcasing, and Celebrating User Stories

Did you hear about a teacher using SpacesEDU in their classroom in a unique way? Or transforming the way they are supporting students and families? Supporting school and district initiatives? Read on for ideas on how to collect, showcase, and celebrate those stories with your school and/or district!

Collecting Stories	Showcasing Stories	Celebrating Stories
Getting the information for the story can be easy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Use a quick Google Form - feel free to make a copy and use this one ✓ Use email to ask for a short quote or testimonial ✓ Use a screenshot, video, or screen recording of their class (with any private information hidden) ✓ In-person? Ask a few quick questions and jot them down 	Consider the goal of the story: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Teacher choice - sharing their story ✓ Thematic <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Equity and inclusion ✓ Assessment ✓ Family engagement ✓ Student engagement ✓ Student agency ✓ Feedback ✓ Reflection ✓ Portfolios ✓ Portrait of a Graduate ✓ Teacher testimonial ✓ Student testimonial 	Here are some examples of where you can celebrate the story: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ District website or social media ✓ Newsletters ✓ Staff meetings ✓ P/VP meetings ✓ Mailing lists ✓ PD opportunities ✓ PD class on SpacesEDU ✓ In-house training sessions ✓ Families

Example:

Emiliano Rodriguez
Aug 18, 2023, 11:29 a.m.

Ms. Silva's Grade 5 Class

1/2

2/2

0:00 | 2:02

Pixar Narrative.pdf
43KB

Partly Cloudy

I'm reading my story for the Partly Cloudy Pixar. I really like doing Stormy the Cloud's voice the best. I change my tone and pace for stormy by talking slow and deep because

View More

This work demonstrates...

C.I • Communicati... EX f • Use oral story... PR 3 • Create and co... PR 2 • Comprehend...

1 2

Check it out! At the Community School, Ms. Silva is using SpacesEDU in her grade 5 class to capture student read-alouds and assess their proficiencies on a variety of literacy standards. The comment section was used for students to ask questions and receive feedback, even from their peers! Do you have a fun or unique story about using SpacesEDU in your classroom? Email me at firstname.lastname@schoolboard.com to be featured next!